Mixology Class with Bambarra Rum and food pairing – join our Mixologist Ronel Charles at Seven Bar for a Master class featuring Bambarra Rum.

Sip and learn about this local rum, and discover how to create craft cocktails paired with complementary bites.

Bambarra Rum is a premium Caribbean rum brand from the Turks and Caicos Islands, known for hand-blending and bottling various aged rums with rich notes of vanilla, caramel, and spice.

The brand honors the Mande people, who shipwrecked on the island in 1841, and influenced local culture.

Hydroponic Farm tour at The Farm

Though its form may differ from a traditional farm at just 320 square feet, the hydroponic container's function reigns supreme.

Faced with the challenge of limestone terrain and limited soil, Executive Chef Edwin Gallardo established the island's first hydroponic container farm.

This innovative system produces an estimated six tons of fresh vegetables per year and supports the hotel's sustainability initiatives.

An underground cistern captures nearly seven million gallons of rainwater annually, significantly reducing water usage.

Join Chef Edwin for a guided tour of the hydroponic farm and learn how he plans and plants for the hotel's restaurants.

Time - 11.00 AM -12.00PM - 13.00PM

Venue - The Farm

Dates - 10th, 11th and 12th of December
